From the vernacular records in the file it is gathered that both the daughters of the deceased are alive and that the eldest of them who is living at Warsipur has 3 sons (all minors) and the 7 younger at Atur has no sons.

The eldest boy of the first daughter in whose name the stipend order is proposed to be issued seems to have performed the obsequies of the deceased Parvathamma & inherited all her property.

On page 47 of the Murai memorandum prescribing rules for the settlement of Ready money grants it is stated "that Grants of money supported by Sanads in which the hereditary character of the grant is expressly mentioned, are to be continued without reduction to its present holders, his
